

AJABU Festival

Win a Trip to Goa, India

Terms and Conditions

This competition is run by AJABU Festival Limited, registration number 11665781, Resthouse Silsoe, in partnership with Paul John Distillery.

Dates. The competition runs from the date of ticket purchase to midnight at the end of 14 November 2026 (South African time). Only tickets bought in this period count.

Who can enter. Anyone aged 18 or older who buys a valid AJABU Festival ticket. Employees, directors, agents and consultants of the promoter, Paul John Distillery, and any supplier involved in the competition (including the ticketing platform and agencies), and their spouses, partners and immediate family, may not win.

How to enter. Every ticket bought is automatically entered. One ticket equals one entry. There is no extra cost to enter, and ticket prices have not been increased because of the competition. Cancelled or refunded tickets are removed from the draw. Complimentary tickets do not count.

The prize. One prize for the winner and one companion (of their choice) aged 18 or older: return economy flights for two from Cape Town (winners from outside Cape Town will be expected to transport themselves to Cape Town) to Goa, India; 5 nights' accommodation sharing one double/twin room at a hotel (to be confirmed); a Paul John Distillery tour; and excursions. The five-day trip takes place in April 2027. April dates to be confirmed by 14 January 2027.

Not included. Passports (valid for six months after travel), Indian visa fees, travel insurance, meals and drinks not listed, travel to Cape Town International Airport and spending money. The prize cannot be swapped for cash or transferred. If part of the prize becomes unavailable for reasons outside the promoter's control, it will be replaced with something of equal or greater value.

The draw. We will draw the winner at random at the AJABU Tasting Experience on 14 November. The winner does not need to be present.

The winner. We will contact the winner using the details provided when buying their ticket and announce them at the Tasting Experience and on Instagram on 14 November. If the winner cannot be reached within ten business days, a new winner may be drawn. The winner must provide passport details for booking and sign to receive the prize.

Publicity. The winner may be invited to appear in publicity but is free to decline, and this will not affect their prize.

Personal information. Entrant details are used only to run the competition and are handled in line with POPIA. The winner's and companion's details will be shared with travel suppliers and the sponsor in India to deliver the prize. Records are kept for three years as required by law.

Responsible drinking. The distillery tour is for adults only. Please enjoy responsibly.

Liability. As far as the law allows, the promoter and sponsor are not responsible for loss, delays or injury connected to the trip, except through their gross negligence. This does not limit any rights under the Consumer Protection Act.
